

White House Initiative on Educational Excellence for Hispanics
Roundtable Discussion on Hispanic Males
January 10, 2014

Participants

Hector Calderon

Director, Expanded Success Initiative
New York City Department of Education

David Campos, Ph.D.

Professor of Education
University of the Incarnate Word

Vanessa Cardenas

Vice President, Progress 2050
Center for American Progress

Richard Fry

Senior Research Associate
Pew Research Center

Terry Greenlund

District Director for Chatham
County Schools, AVID

Kwame Griffith

Executive Vice President,
Regional Operations
Teach For America

Mervin Jenkins

Assistant Eastern Divisional
Director, AVID

Khary Lazarre-White

Executive Director & Co-Founder
The Brotherhood/Sister Sol

Patricia Leon-Guerrero

Managing Director
National Alliances and Latino Initiatives
Teach for America

Mark Hugo Lopez

Director of Hispanic Research
Pew Research Center

Michael L. López, Ph.D.

Principal Associate, Abt
Associates

Rafael López

Senior Policy Advisor
Office of Social Innovation and Civic Participation
The White House

Julio Marcial

Program Director
The California Wellness
Foundation

Luis Ponjuan, PhD

Associate Professor
Higher Education Administration
Texas A&M University

Belinda I. Reyes

Director, Cesar E. Chavez
Institute
San Francisco State University

Victor B. Sáenz, Ph.D.

Associate Professor
Department of Educational Administration
The University of Texas at Austin

Lacy Maria Serros

Program Manager
Hispanics in Philanthropy

Enrique Soto

Manager, Latino Engagement
and Partnerships
Teach for America

Mellie Torres

Postdoctoral Research Fellow
Metropolitan Center for Urban Education
New York University

Douglas Wood

Program Officer
Higher Education for Social Justice Initiative
Ford Foundation

WHIEEH Staff

Alejandra Ceja

Executive Director

Marco A. Davis

Deputy Director

Maribel Duran

Chief of Staff

Emmanuel Caudillo

Special Advisor